

SAVE FIRST--INVEST LATER

Practically all investments start with a savings account. Now and then a man makes money suddenly, or inherits it, and there becomes an investor on a large scale, but such a man is an exception.

The rule is a person must be a saver of money before they can become an investor in securities or property.

We have always paid SIX PER CENT on savings. It will pay you to come in and see us.

CONVENIENCE

To the Public:
It is our desire to call your attention to the convenience that we can extend to you in a banking way and also the advantages of using the check book instead of the pocketbook.

Nine-tenths of the business of the world today is done by check.
Why?
Because it is the most practical and it is the one safe way.
Are you utilizing a check book to pay all bills that can be paid by check? Think this over.
Our banks' advantages for your account are many.

on a long time loan with small payments and with quarterly settlements. Payments made on your pay day.

Call on us if you contemplate building or buying a home this spring.

There is a big demand for these loans and to meet this demand demand we need more deposits. There is no safer place to invest idle money, or to accumulate savings than a good Building Assn. After settling aside a contingent fund as required by law, we distribute our entire earnings in dividends to our depositing members.

SECOND ATTACK ON T. R.
Washington, April 12.—The directors of President Taft's campaign today issued their second bitter personal attack on Colonel Roosevelt by reciting what they said was the "history" of William Flinn, of Pittsburgh, manager of the colored's Pennsylvania campaign.

She was participating in a state tennis tournament here a year ago when an automobile in which she was riding collided with street building material and her right ankle and right arm were injured. She says that no she cannot play in championship form.
Her suit is against the street paving company.

High-Priced Form.
Cleveland, April 13.—Possession of championship form in ice skating and in playing tennis and what is valued at $10,000 in insurance for damages insured here by Mrs. Annie C. Burgers, of Toronto, Canada. Until a year ago Mrs. Burgess was champion woman skater and woman tennis champion of Canada and also held an international trophy for whist supremacy.

agreement which they say Flinn tried to make with the late Senator Quay in 1906, five years before Flinn, according to the Taft leaders, was "driven out of politics by an uprising of the people of Pittsburgh—the same people he and Mr. Roosevelt now purport to represent."

The Taft bureau declared even Quay wouldn't stand for this agreement which purported to provide an apportionment of patronage and delegates.
The statement also alleges that Flinn made more than $19,000,000 out of politics.

"Of course," says the statement, "this is not Theodore Roosevelt of the 'let-the-people-rule' club established by William J. Bryan, but Theodore Roosevelt, the 'practical' man known to E. H. Harriman and others of his intimate friends—when 'the people' were not looking. If Mr. Roosevelt is sincere in his protestations, if he means what he says in Pennsylvania, he now stands for exactly the things that he has repeatedly denounced the state of Pennsylvania standing for.
Mr. Roosevelt is admittedly never consistent about anything."

Elder Acquitted.
Springfield, O., April 13.—After being out five hours, the jury late last night acquitted Pearl Elder, white, charged with manslaughter, for the killing of James Sanford, colored, alleged paramour of his mother. Elder pleaded self-defense.

"I cared a whole lot for my mother and could not give her up," said Elder today after his acquittal. "I had pleaded with her to give up her colored lover and it was for this purpose that I went to their home September 25, 1910."

"There I met Sanford. I told him to get out and quit living with mother.
Sanford, enraged, lunged at me. I picked up a pistol lying on the table and as Sanford came at me, I fired.
I shot in self-defense."

After the shooting, Elder fled from the city. Unable to obtain employment, he surrendered in Chicago and came back here for trial. Previous to the sensational shooting case, Elder was engaged to Oia Davis, an Indian girl, he claims, and their engagement was broken off.

500 People in Marion Want Information as to How to Improve the Outside of Their Homes.

The lots are from 33 to 50 feet wide and from 100 to 150 feet deep. They want to know how best to improve them at the least cost. They want to know how much of the soil to remove, and how to replace it with good soil. They also want to know where to buy seeds flowers plants trees shrubbery and sod and where they can get the rich earth and the fertilizer how to mix it, how to prepare the ground for the planting, and when to plant, what to plant, where to plant and how to plant.

They also want to know if there is anyone who will come to their homes and show them

samples of the various things above, and tell them

What it will cost to furnish the material, and also what the contractor will do the whole thing for complete. They also want the information as to how they can raise vegetables

in connection with flowers, shrubbery, etc., and how to wire netting;

what the netting costs, what size netting to use, how to fasten it to fences and walls, and how to put a pergola on top of the fence so as to grow the most vegetables in the smallest space.

Please answer this by an advertisement in the newspapers, giving particulars along these lines.

Spring is here
